Dear [REDACTED]

The United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby contracts with you for the purchase of information and services of a confidential nature under the following conditions:

1. For the purchase of such information and services you will be compensated at a rate not to exceed $25.00 per day of service or any portion thereof. You will be required to certify that you have not received compensation for services rendered any other Government agency on any day for which payment is made hereunder by CIA. No taxes will be withheld from this amount and it will be your responsibility to report this income under existing Federal income tax laws and regulations.
2. You will be advanced or reimbursed funds for necessary expenses incurred in connection with such travel or for such purposes as may be directed or authorized by CIA. You will be required to account for such expenses in accordance with applicable CIA regulations.
3. Payments under this contract will be made as directed by you in writing in a manner acceptable to CIA and will be based upon the certification and accounting required above. Such payments will be considered full compensation for services furnished by you hereunder.
4. You are not considered an employee of the United States Government under this agreement, and you are not entitled to sick or annual leave or any benefits normally incident to an employee status.
5. You will be required to keep forever secret this contract and all information which you may obtain by reason thereof (unless released in writing by CIA from such obligation), with full knowledge that violation of such secrecy may subject you to criminal prosecution under the Espionage Laws, dated 25 June 1948 (18 U.S.C. 793 and 794), and other applicable laws and regulations.
